Headline:
Largely cloudy with patchy rain and drizzle. Mild.

Today:
A windy and largely cloudy day today. There will be outbreaks of patchy rain this morning, ahead of a mostly dry afternoon. Then heavier and more persistent rain arrives this evening. Feeling milder than recent days. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
A band of persistent and heavy rain will push south-eastwards across the region this evening, followed by clearer, showery weather overnight. Winds strengthening further too. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Wednesday:
A colder day on Wednesday with a mixture of bright or sunny spells and blustery showers, the showers most widespread during the afternoon. Remaining rather windy. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Showers will ease going into Thursday before a band of rain and snow sweeps through early on Friday with strong winds. Further blustery showers are expected on Saturday.
